Two fellows were sitting on a park bench. One of them said to the other,
"I'm afraid of flying. I take the train on all my long trips."
The other said, "That's silly. Didn't you read about those 300 people who got killed on a train last week?"
"Three hundred people?" asked the fearful one.
"How could three hundred people die in a train crash?"
"A plane fell on it," said his friend.

A woman walked up to a little old man rocking in a chair on his porch.
"I couldn't help noticing how happy you look," she said. "What's your secret for a long happy life?"
"I smoke three packs of cigarettes a day," he said. "I also drink a case of whiskey a week, eat fatty foods, and never exercise."
"That's amazing," the woman said. "How old are you?"
"Twenty-six," he said.

A vacationer e-mailed a seaside hotel to ask its location.
"It's only a stone's throw away from the beach," he was told.
"But how will I recognize it?" asked the man.
Back came the reply:
"It's the one with all the broken windows."

My husband seems to feel one should get their money's worth on vacation. I'm not sure if I'm supposed to frolic every minute or not. But once when I was sitting in a beach chair on the sand, he came out of the surf and said, "This is costing us $300 a day - and all you can do is sit there reading a book!"

When my three-year-old son opened the birthday gift from his grandmother, he discovered a water pistol. He squealed with delight and headed for the nearest sink. I was not so pleased. I turned to Mom and said, "I'm surprised at you. Don't you remember how we used to drive you crazy with water guns?" Mom smiled and then replied..... "I remember."

A woman invited some people to a dinner party. After a full day of preparation they were all finally gathered around the table, she turned to her six-year-old daughter and said, "Would you like to say the blessing? I don't know what to say, the girl replied. Just say what you hear Mommy say. The daughter bowed her head and said, Lord, why on earth did I invite all these people to dinner?

The new family in the neighborhood overslept, and their six- year-old daughter missed her school bus. The father, though late for work, had to drive her if she'd direct him to the school. They rode several blocks before she told him to turn the first time, several more before she indicated another turn. This went on for 20 minutes - but when they finally reached the school, it proved to be only a short distance from their home. The father, much annoyed, asked his daughter why she'd led him around in such a circle. The child explained, "That's the way the school bus goes, Daddy. It's the only way I know."

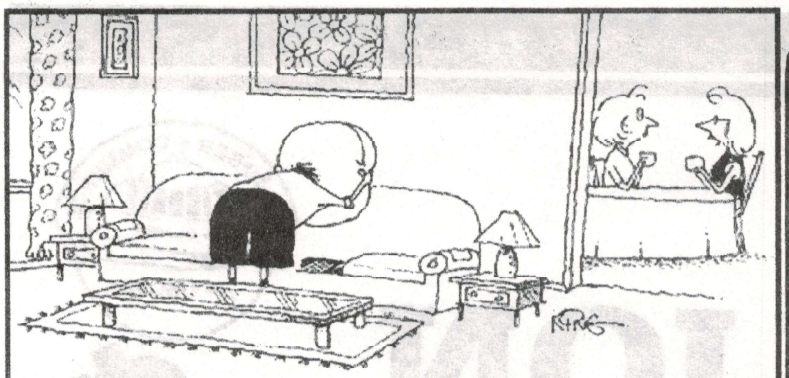
A police officer in a small town stopped a motorist who was speeding down Main Street.
"But officer," the man began, "I can explain..."
"Just be quiet," snapped the officer. "I'm going to let you cool your heels in jail until the chief gets back."
"But, officer, I just wanted to say...,"
"And I said to keep quiet! You're going to jail!"
A few hours later the officer looked in on his prisoner and said, "Lucky for you that the chief's at his daughter's wedding. He'll be in a good mood when he gets back."
"Don't count on it," answered the fellow in the cell. "I'm the groom."



The doctor said he needed more activity. So I hide his T.V. remote three times a week.

How many ears did Davy Crockett have?

An older couple were lying in bed one night. The husband was falling asleep but the wife felt romantic and wanted to talk. She said,
You use to hold my hand when we were courting.
Wearily he reached across, held her hand for a second, then tried to get back to sleep. A few moments later she said,
Then you used to kiss me.
Mildly irritated, he reached across, gave her a peck on the cheek and settled down to sleep. Thirty seconds later she said,
Then you use to bite my neck.
Angrily, he threw back the bed covers and got out of bed.
Where are you going? she asked.
To get my teeth!

FOUR OLD MEN WERE OUT GOLFING.
"THESE HILLS ARE GETTING STEEPER AS THE YEARS GO BY," ONE COMPLAINED.
"THESE FAIRWAYS SEEM TO BE GETTING LONGER TOO," SAID ONE OF THE OTHERS.
"THE SAND TRAPS SEEM TO BE BIGGER THAN I REMEMBER THEM TOO," SAID THE THIRD SENIOR.
AFTER HEARING ENOUGH FROM HIS SENIOR BUDDIES, THE OLDEST AND THE WISEST OF THE FOUR OF THEM AT 87 YEARS OLD, PIPED UP AND SAID,
"JUST BE THANKFUL WE'RE STILL ON THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE GRASS!"

As I drove into a parking lot, I noticed that a pickup truck with a dog sitting behind the wheel was rolling toward a female pedestrian. She seemed oblivious, so I hit my horn to get her attention. She looked up just in time to jump out of the way of the truck's path, and the vehicle bumped harmlessly into the curb and stopped.
I rushed to the woman's side to see if she was all right. "I'm fine," she assured me, "but I hate to think what could have happened to me if that dog hadn't honked."

"How long have you been driving without a tail light?" asked the policeman after pulling over a motorist.
The driver jumped out, ran to the rear of his car, and gave a long, painful groan.
He seemed so upset that the cop was moved to ease up on him a bit.
"Come on, now," he said, "you don't have to take it so hard. It isn't that serious."
"It isn't?" cried the motorist. "Then you know what happened to my boat and trailer?"

A young minister sitting down to dinner was about to say Grace when he opened the casserole dish that his thrifty bride had prepared from all of the refrigerator leftovers.
"I don't know,"
he said dubiously,
"but it seems to me that I've blessed all this stuff before."

An elderly gent was invited to his old friends' home for dinner one evening. He was impressed by the way his buddy preceded every request to his wife with endearing terms-- Honey, My Love, Darling, Sweetheart, Pumpkin, etc.
The couple had been married almost 70 years and, clearly, they were still very much in love.
While the wife was in the kitchen, the man leaned over and said to his host,
"I think it's wonderful that, after all these years, you still call your wife those loving pet names."
The old man hung his head.
"I have to tell you the truth," he said,
"I forgot her name about 10 years ago."
